Executive Order on Access to and Conditions for Travelling in Certain Parts of Greenland

The following is laid down pursuant to section 132(1) of the Penal Code for Greenland, cf. Consolidated Act No. 49 of 13 February 1979, as amended by Act No. 335 of 16 May 2001:

Part I

Travelling on the inland ice and in the National Park in North and East Greenland, etc.

1. With the exceptions listed in sections 2 to 5 and section 13 of this Order, travelling without a permit is prohibited:

- (i) on the inland ice in Greenland and glaciers issuing therefrom;
- (ii) in the National Park in North and East Greenland and the adjoining sea territory;
- (iii) in the rest of East Greenland from the National Park to a line east/west of the Lindenow Fjord; and
- (iv) in the rest of North Greenland from the National Park to latitude 78° N.

2. No permit is required for travelling:

- (i) in the area near Qaanaaq between latitudes 78° N and 79° N west of longitude 66° W;
- (ii) in Illuqqortoormiit in the area extending from the town and to the National Park, towards the west to longitude 29° W and towards the south to latitude 70° N; and
- (iii) in the area extending up to 150 km from the centre of Tasiilaq.

3. (1) No permit is required under this Order for travels of less than 24 hours' duration in the land areas listed in section 1 of this Order.

(2) A permit is required for sailing in the areas listed in section 1 of this Order regardless of duration.

- (iii) there is probable cause to assume in advance that the applicant will not comply with the conditions stipulated for the permit; or
- (iv) the applicant has not complied with the conditions set out in permits issued or with the general rules applicable to stays in the relevant area in connection with previous travels in one of the areas listed in Section 1 of this Order.

10. A travel permit for the areas listed in Section 1 of this Order may be revoked at any time by the Danish Polar Center or the Chief Constable of Greenland. The permit may be revoked, for example, if the trip is deemed manifestly reckless on the basis of new and important information or implies violations of the rights of the State, the Home Rule Government or any third party.

11. Decisions made by the Danish Polar Center under the rules of this Part may be appealed to the Chief Constable of Greenland. The appeal must reach the Chief Constable of Greenland within eight weeks of the decision.

12. (1) Travelling in the areas listed in Section 1 of this Order without the requisite permit, contrary to a permit or after revocation of a permit pursuant to section 10 of this Order may be terminated pursuant to a decision by the Chief Constable of Greenland.

(2) Where such travelling is terminated, the Chief Constable of Greenland or any person so authorised by him may decide to leave the participants' luggage and equipment behind and put down their dogs.

(3) Decisions made pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) hereof may be appealed to the Danish Ministry of Justice. An appeal does not suspend enforcement of the decision. The appeal must reach the Ministry of Justice within eight weeks of the decision.

13. (1) The rules of this Part do not apply to members of NATO forces, Danish military authorities or Danish civilian State authorities, Home Rule authorities or municipal authorities in Greenland.

(2) The Danish Polar Center must be notified of trips made by the authorities, etc., listed in subsection (1) hereof before the start of the trip.

(3) Subsection (2) hereof does not apply to military activities.

Part 2

Transiting, entering and exiting defence areas in Greenland

14. With the exceptions listed in Section 15 of this Order, it is prohibited to transit, enter and exit the defence area in Greenland established pursuant to the Agreement of 27 April 1951 between the Governments of Denmark and the United States of America on the Defence of Greenland, as subsequently amended.

15. (1) The following persons are free to transit, enter or exit the defence area in Greenland referred to in Section 14 of this Order:

- (i) Members of NATO forces whose presence in the defence area in Greenland is necessary in connection with activities pursuant to the said Agreement or other NATO arrangements, and their family members;
- (ii) civilian personnel seconded from the United States of America by the relevant military authorities or by a private company authorised by any such authority and whose presence in the said area is necessary in connection with activities pursuant to the said Agreement or other NATO arrangements, and their family members;
- (iii) representatives of Danish and Greenlandic authorities;
- (iv) persons whose address, as entered in the civil register, is in Qaanaaq municipality;
- (v) persons granted access to the defence area by specific authority from the Danish Government; and

(vi) persons granted access to the defence area by specific authority from the U.S. Government.

(2) Civilian personnel seconded from Denmark or countries other than the United States of America and whose presence in the defence area in Greenland referred to in Section 14 of this Order is of the nature stated in subsection (1)(ii) hereof as well as their family members may transit, enter and exit the defence area with the prior permission of the Danish Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

(3) Persons other than those listed in subsections (1) and (2) hereof, apart from Danish nationals residing in Greenland, may enter and exit the defence area in Greenland referred to in Section 14 of this Order with the prior permission of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs or of another Danish authority authorised by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

(4) Transit travellers comprised by the Agreement of 19 January 1995 between the Governments of the United States of America and the Kingdom of Denmark (including the Greenland Home Rule Government) concerning transit of tourists and other visitors through Thule Air Base, Greenland, may transit the defence area in Greenland with the prior permission of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs or another Danish authority authorised by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and with permission from the U.S. military authorities in Greenland.

(5) Danish nationals residing in Greenland and not comprised by subsections (1) and (2) hereof may transit, enter and exit the defence area in Greenland referred to in Section 14 of this Order with the prior permission of the High Commissioner of Greenland.

16. (1) Applications from persons comprised by section 15(2) of this Order must reach the Ministry of Foreign Affairs at least one week before departure to the defence area. Applications from persons comprised by section 15(3) and (4) of this Order must reach the Ministry of Foreign Affairs at least three weeks before departure to the defence area.

(2) Applications for approval by the High Commissioner of Greenland of persons comprised by section 15(5) of this Order must reach the High Commissioner of Greenland at least one week before departure to the defence area.

17. Access to other military areas in Greenland is conditional upon permission from the Danish military authority responsible for the area.

Part 3

Violation and entry into force

18. Any person who intentionally or negligently violates section 1 or 14 of this Order or violates conditions or orders imposed pursuant to section 8 of this Order may become liable to pay a fine. Moreover, equipment, etc., may be confiscated.

19. (1) This Order enters into force on 1 January 2007.

(2) At the same time, Executive Order No. 39 of 22 February 1967 on travels to and in Greenland is repealed.
